COMMERCIAL ALLIANCE ANNOUNCES NEW PROPERTY MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATE

MEMPHIS, TN, June 19, 2006 – Commercial Alliance has announced the addition of Property Manager, John Winchester to its staff. Winchester comes from Clean Play Inc., where he served as General Manager for eleven years.

Winchester brings a vast amount of leadership, strategic planning, resource coordination, and budget management experience to his position. Throughout his career he has been an active contributor to the growth and management of dynamically growing businesses through corporate and field positions. Winchester also has his B.B.A. in General Management/Finance from the University of Memphis.

Through his new role at Commercial Alliance, Winchester will be able to use his experience and education to help manage client properties. According to Commercial Alliance Sr. Vice President of Management Services, Donna West, "It is often difficult to find talented property management professionals. We are happy John decided to join Commercial Alliance Management and be a part of our team."

Commercial Alliance exclusively provides leasing and property management services to third-party owners of real estate portfolios and corporate real estate facilities.
