COMMERCIAL ALLIANCE ANNOUNCES NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF LEASING

MEMPHIS, TN, July 24, 2006 – Commercial Alliance announces the addition of Vice President of Leasing Dan McEver to its staff. McEver comes from Commercial Advisors where he served as an Associate Broker.

McEver brings a diverse amount of commercial real estate experience to his new position. He has tremendous experience in relationship and project management with a diverse mix of companies in size and industry. Additionally, his unique experience as both a landlord and tenant representative enables him to provide Commercial Alliance's clients expertise and advice in meeting their operational and investment objectives.

Dan received both his BA and MBA from the University of Memphis. Additionally, he is licensed in the states of Tennessee and Mississippi. McEver also serves as a March of Dimes Committee Volunteer.

Coupled with his experience, education, and passion for client services, Dan offers significant value to Commercial Alliance's leasing team. Commercial Alliance President Mark Jenkins states, "Dan's professionalism, character and experience will be a tremendous asset to us and we are delighted that he has joined our team. He will make an immediate contribution in enhancing the services we provide to our clients."

Commercial Alliance exclusively provides leasing and property management services to third-party owners of real estate portfolios and corporate real estate facilities.
